U3A Monthly Talk

Visitors and new members welcome
Entry Free to members, £3 for non-members (Membership available)

This illustrated talk will look at how the Kirkcudbright Artists Remembered Project was conceived and implemented by a willing and enthusiastic band of local volunteers. The historical context, and its impact upon present day Kirkcudbright will be discussed, and the outcomes will be described and viewed. Their significance is not just of local interest but of national value.

The Speaker – Hilary Alcock is an international education consultant, passionate about art, design and the theatre.
